JUGHEAD NO. 156 MAY MEMBERSHIP — TWENTY CENTS

FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
JOANNE WALSH
Route 4, Box 627
Arnold, Mo. 63010

Dear Archie,

I just joined your club and thought it was about time I wrote you a letter. About four weeks ago we went on our vacation to visit my aunt and my uncle who own a farm in the southern tip of Missouri. Sunday, was the day that we arrived so we just did things around the farm. Monday, we visited Graham Cave State Park in which we saw a cave that was inhabited by Missouri Indians over ten-thousand years ago. Tuesday, we went to Shrea Creek to take part in swimming and fishing. Wednesday, we visited Ranch Royal a recreation resort for swimming, fishing, and horseback riding. They also had the stunning Japanese Gardens. Thursday, we went back to Shrea Creek to go fishing and swimming again. Friday, was our last day so we just had a barbecue and played softball and handball around the farm. Saturday morning was the time that we left for home. I really must say that I had a most enjoyable vacation. Also what I want to say is that I just love your comic books.

SECOND PRIZE — $3.00

REPORTER
PAT PETERSON
211 Marian Drive
Syracuse, N.Y. 13219

Dear Archie,

At the beginning of September our city has a State Fair. I thought you might like to know a little about it.

Laid out all over the Fair grounds are buildings which contain different setups for each different company in the fair. It is really interesting, along wth being educational, to go through the buildings.

In one section of the grounds is an Indian Village. Here, at a certain time, real Indian tribes do their dances. There are little cabins also in this area selling hand made Indian souvenirs.

Besides being places to eat at, there are farm buildings where sheep, pigs, cows, hens, roosters, and horses are kept. They have a show one day to judge the best animals.

Also during the day they have a free show where some of the professional performers do their acts.

Of course the most exciting part of the fair is the Midway. At night all the rides and games are lit up. It's really a pretty sight.

I guess now you can see why I save up money to go to the fair each year.

THIRD PRIZE — $2.00

REPORTER
PHILOMENA GILMOUR
R.R. No. 1, Con 4
King, Ontario, Can.

Dear Archie,

A new fad around our school is designing your own stationery. Here are a few interesting ways in which you can do it.

If you have recently been decorating your house it is possible that you may have some printed wallpaper left over. If your mother gives you permission to use it, you can cut out dogs, cats, horses, etc., and paste them on the top left hand side of your normal blank writing paper. This looks very attractive. And for your envelopes? You can cut out zigzagged strips long enough to fit the sides of your envelopes, then just paste them on the edges of the envelopes. It is inexpensive and looks pretty, too!!

FOURTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
STEVEN MORRISON
455 Glengrove Avenue
Toronto, 12 Ontario, Can.

Dear Archie,

Recently we bought our fifth budgie and certainly the best budgie we ever had. It is green and yellow and very alert and playful. His name is Dickie and sometimes we call him Trickie Dickie. When we saw how smart he was we bought him a merry-go-round which he rides on. He loves to play with my fingers and my ears. I think that the budgie bird is very intelligent for ours can speak and mock. He is very loveable and easy to train. So if you want a good pet I would advise you to get a budgie.

FIFTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
ROBERT BADOLATO
150 Vernon Avenue
Yonkers, N.Y.

Dear Archie,

I am in the fifth grade and am 10½ years old. Recently my class took a trip to the Museum of Natural History. My friends and I thought that it would be a very boring trip and were sure that we wouldn't like it.

To our surprise, the museum was very interesting and we had a great time! Although there were many unusual things, the ones I enjoyed most were the dinosaur bones. The bones were put together so that the dinosaurs stood up just like they had a million years ago.

Since I went to the Museum of Natural History, I have been going to many more museums. I think they are fun to go to, and everyone should go and see them.
